Crutchfield III, MD was awarded the Fay Vincent Most Valuable Partner (MVP) Award, by Larry Lester, chairman of the Society for American Baseball Research (SABR) Negro Leagues Committee.

The Fay Vincent Most Valuable Partner (MVP) Award is in honor of FAY VINCENT, Major League Baseball Commissioner from 1989 to 1992. Mr. Vincent was instrumental, along with National League President Len Coleman, and former Brooklyn Dodgers pitcher Joe Black, in the development of a comprehensive healthcare plan and retroactive pensions for Negro League veterans.

An avid supporter of promoting Negro League history, Vincent chaired the special Hall of Fame committee that elected a record 17 former players and executives to Cooperstown immortality in 2006. Earlier, in 2002, he donated royalties to former Negro Leaguers from his first book, "The Last Commissioner."

Vincent also contributed funds to purchase headstones for unmarked graves and quietly provides financial assistance to Negro League legends in need.

Vincent, Jr.
